

BIOGRAPHY

Dave Scott-Morgan (aka Dave Morgan), lead vocalist and songwriter of MOrganisation, has a musical past that hails from the 'brum-beat' groups of the 60's - including MAGNUM (bass), THE UGLY'S (guitar) and the spin-off BALLS (with Steve Gibbons and Trevor Burton).

Dave's first album was produced by Lou Reizner and issued on the US Ampex label as MORGAN in 1971 while Dave was touring America as a folk singer.

Dave's songs brought him wider notice when recorded by numerous groups such as THE MOVE, who recorded "Something" the B-side to the group's number one hit "Blackberry Way"; and "This Time Tomorrow" the B-side of "Curly." The song HIROSHIMA has twice been a hit in Europe, first with WISHFUL THINKING, lastly in 1990/91 - reaching No.4 in the German charts, sung by the German artist SANDRA.

From 1981 to 1986 Dave was part of the ELECTRIC LIGHT ORCHESTRA group (guitar, synth, vocoder + back-up vocals). He was a musician on ELO's album SECRET MESSAGES and also worked on Jeff Lynne's ARMCHAIR THEATRE solo album, released in 1990.

Dave's long time collaboration with Richard Tandy (ELO's keyboard player) has resulted in many recordings of his songs: the concept album EARTH RISE; the single BERLIN and, together with guitarist Martin Smith, the charity single ACTION produced by Jeff Lynne; plus the compilation CD BC COLLECTION.

Dave began composing inspirational songs in 1988: the CALL Compact Disc (1997) includes GOD'S GOOD TIME, produced by Jeff Lynne. Two further inspirational CDs, LONG WAY HOME and ANGEL LIGHT were released in 1999 and 2002 respectively.

In 2012 Dave published his autobiography PATTERNS IN THE CHAOS and ACROSS THE DIVIDE, an album with songs that were written over several decades, covering an array of genres recorded with a wide range of musicians.

Now Dave with his band MOrganisation (whose ages span across the divide of 5 decades) performs his original songs plus rock 'n' roll classics and quintessential ELO hits.

Other members of the band are Alex Lowe (lead guitar), Alan Smith (keyboards), Jack Rosa (drums & cajon) Mandy Scott-Morgan (backing vocals and percussion).
